Graco LineSite®

Remote Monitoring Solution for InvisiPac® Hot Melt Systems

The data to make real-time decisions – wherever you are.

With LineSite, you can track InvisiPac machines on the plant floor in real-time from your smart phone, tablet or computer, and use the data as a powerful business tool to cut costs.

Are your lines running? Could they be more efficient? How much hot melt is being used in one hour? One day? One week? Should you be considering simple preventative maintenance?

LineSite puts critical information at your fingertips.

- Check temperatures and review critical performance metrics
- Receive email alerts for system events or alarms
- See how much adhesive each line is using
- Monitor machine diagnostics and prevent issues from causing you downtime
- Respond instantaneously to potential faults and diagnose them remotely
- Review system operating data in an intuitive, graphical format
